IISRP EXPRESSES LOSS OF SENIOR EXECUTIVE

22 September 2016, Houston, Texas — The International Institute of Synthetic Rubber Producers, Inc. (IISRP) acknowledges the loss of one of its retired senior executives, Milton J. Rhoad who passed away on 13 August 2016.

“Milton was IISRP’s Managing Director from March 1978 until his retirement in 1985” stated Juan Ramon Salinas, IISRP Managing Director and CEO. He managed the relocation of IISRP’s office from New York City to Houston and is primarily known for his establishment of the Environmental Health Committee in the Americas and the Institute’s scientific research on 1,3-butadiene. Milt was a strong leader of the IISRP and was recognized for his contribution by receiving the IISRP’s General Award in 1984.

The IISRP is an international not-for-profit trade association with over 60 corporate members, domiciled in 22 countries, who produce 90 percent of the world's supply of synthetic rubber. Incorporated in 1960 and headquartered in Houston, Texas, the Institute supports section offices in Milan, Tokyo and Beijing.
